HELP!

We continue to be surprised at the relatively large number of student officers and noncommissioned officers attending various courses of instruction at Fort Benning who have never seen or even heard of INFANTRY, their professional bulletin.

This bothers us a great deal, because we send copies of the bulletin to every infantry company and battalion in the Active Army and the Reserve Components and to every senior Army ROTC detachment. (We also send additional copies to the Military Academy and to selected military schools.)

We can only assume, therefore, that those copies are not being made available to our soldiers and cadets, and that they are being treated as personal copies by the first people who get their hands on them.

We plead with the commanders of our ROTC detachments and infantry companies ~~and battalions to see that the unit copies of~~ INFANTRY are made available to their cadets and soldiers. We also ask the commanders to mention the fact that personal subscriptions are available. Just recently, for example, several newly commissioned infantry officers told us they knew of the bulletin but did not realize they could purchase subscriptions to it.

Our junior officers and noncommissioned officers in particular need the kind of information we publish. Please help us get that information to them.

INDEXES

Copies of our indexes for 1986, 1987, and 1988 are still available free of charge to anyone who writes to request them. These indexes, arranged by subject as well as by title and author, can be very useful in finding material on a certain topic.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

INFANTRY is available to subscribers at $12.00 for one year and $23.00 for two years. Foreign (non-APO) subscribers must add $4.00 per subscription per year to cover mailing (surface mail) and handling charges. Foreign air mail rates will be furnished on request. Single copies are $2.50 each if sent to a U.S. address.

Payment must be made in U.S. currency, by international money order, or by a check or draft drawn on a U.S. bank. For best service, payment should accompany each order, because we cannot start a subscription until we have received full payment for it. Checks, money orders, or drafts should be made payable to INFANTRY and mailed to P.O. Box 2005, Fort Benning, GA 31905-0605.

One-year subscriptions are not refundable. Two-year subscriptions are refundable, but service and handling charges will be deducted.
